History

Women's study club was organized and federated in 1911. Their goal was to study questions of interest and miscellaneous topics. Organized by a group of women from Brown County who had moved to Minneapolis. The charter members came from Sleepy Eye, New Ulm and Springfield. Mrs. K.E. Mo was the first president.

Membership was limited to 25 and meetings were conducted at the homes of members. Topics studied include United States, Alaska government and civic problems, book reviews and current events.
