History

Organized in 1905 and federated in 1906. Little information is available on this women's study group. The name of the group could come from the Greek, meaning "neighbors." Study programs included history, literature, and countries of the world.

Description of Collection

This collection consists of yearbooks and directories from 1908-1928. The directories are handwritten or typed and include officers, committees, meetings and topics for each month, bibliography, and member's names and addresses.
