History

This organization also called itself "The Cheese Club" and materials are from 1923-1938. The purpose of the club was to extend aid and to co-operate with political movements whose aim was the improvement of the living and working conditions among the masses of the people, embracing all producers, whether manual or brain workers; to promote greater efficiency and devotion to the public interest in all branches of the government service; to assist in inducing citizens of dependable character and special fitness to become candidates for important public office; to provide ways and means of disseminating correct information that such candidates and political groups will receive publicity; to present the point of view of the liberal-minded business and professional man and to co-operate with the farmer-labor groups in their political activities.
