History

Women's club was organized on October 13, 1893 by Eliza Berryhill. The original object of the club was to study the world's fair, the Columbian Exposition in Chicago, hence the name of the club. Art, architecture, and exhibits in general were studied. History, travel, drama, and other subjects were added later.

Description of Collection

The collection consists of programs from 1898 to 1938 and a brief history of the club. The programs include officers, committees, programs and presenters for the year, members' names and addresses.
