History

The Lynnhurst Travel Club was organized in 1915. The club consisted of women from the Minneapolis area. The club studied a particular country or region every season. Some countries of study included China, India, France, Poland, etc.. The study group studied politics, history, art and culture of each country. Meetings were held bi-monthly at a member's household and the hostess was responsible for the presentation for that particular meeting.

Description of the Collection

The collection consists of the travel club programs and member lists from 1916-1942 and 1946-1947. The programs also outline officers and activity committee members for each year. Newspaper clippings from 1917-1941 are also included.
