History

The Northside Settlement Services, Inc. provided a variety of services to residents of north Minneapolis. The administration offices of the center were located at 2507 Fremont Avenue North. The purpose of the corporation was to continue and expand the work of the social service agencies on the Minneapolis Northside in order to encourage the growth of community identification, interest, improvement and advancement through working with individuals and public and private groups and to foster the economic, social and educational prospects of the persons living in the community which it served.

The Northside Settlement Services, Inc. was a United Way Agency. In 1984 Northside Settlement Services and Pillsbury United Neighborhood Services merged to form what is now Pillsbury United Communities.
