Biographical/Historical note

The Twin City Iron Works was founded in Minneapolis in 1887 by O.P Briggs, W.H. Getschell and Joseph Garbett. Garbett was the vice president of the company until its operations were combined with the Minnesota Malleable Iron Company to form the Minneapolis Steel and Machinery Company. This company later combined with the Minneapolis Threshing Machine Company and the Moline Plow Company in 1929 to form Minneapolis-Moline.

Scope and Contents note

The photos are chiefly pictures of products and scenes in and around the Twin City Iron Works factory. Some photos are of TCIW products at the factories of other companies in different parts of the state and country. Most photos do not contain identifying information. Individuals are depicted in some of the photos, but none are identified.
