Ms. Lenroot-Ernt expressed her gratitude and thanked the board for this recognition.

Director Selection Process Committee Report
The second meeting of the Director Selection Process Committee was held on January 9. The committee determined avenues of engagement should address vision for the library, engage employees and library users, and discover what employees and library users value in a leader. The committee discussed how engagement opportunities would also serve as a way to promote HCL to the candidates through tours and public meet and greet events or a reception.

The committee recommended holding a public listening engagement session as a full Library Board in February to gather input from staff, library users, and the community to better support the Library Board in recommending a Library Director to County Administration.

Jonathan Gaw made a motion to approve the pre-finalist engagement process; seconded by Caitlin Cahill. Motion passed.

2019 Meeting Schedule
Based on upcoming Director Selection Process events, the DSP committee is recommending revising the 2019 Library Board meeting schedule to the following:

- Reschedule the February 27 Executive Committee meeting to March or April, date TBD.
- Hold a full Library Board meeting on February 27 to engage in a public listening session, with public comment to begin at 6:00 p.m.
- Cancel the March 27 Library Board meeting in anticipation of holding a Special Meeting to engage with Library Director finalists in March or April, date TBD.

Erin Vrieze Daniels made a motion to approve the revised 2019 Library Board schedule; seconded by Margy Ligon. Motion passed.

2018 Accomplishments
Library Board members were asked to review the 2018 Library Board accomplishments draft and notify the Library Board Clerk of any corrections or omissions.

Conferences
President Blauvelt reviewed the process for Library Board members to register and request reimbursement for approved conferences.
LIBRARY BOARD POLICIES

2019 Policy Review, Janet Mills
Janet Mills introduced the policy review schedule for 2019, which includes the following policies: Collection Development and Management, Freedom to Read, Freedom to View, Lending, and Policy Review Policy. Interim Director Mills reminded the Board that Library Board policies are meant to provide high-level principals of the values the board would like staff to impart and follow in their more detailed administrative policies. The Board was reminded that the Freedom to Read and Freedom to view policies are adopted as is from other organizations.

Johannah Genett and Gail Mueller Schultz provided an overview of the draft of the Collection Development and Management policy based on the Library Board dialogues held in September and November 2018.

Collection Development and Management - Board members expressed a desire to see: wording showing that we value the library’s strong reference collection and recognize that providing an in depth collection is important; changing special collections approval from the County Board back to the Library Board; and greater clarity around language related to special collections at Minneapolis Central Library and special collections throughout the system.

Mueller Schultz shared how important the policy is to guiding the work of Collection Management staff and thanked the Board for their support.

DIRECTOR’S REPORT

Library, Community and County Updates

Eden Prairie Library closed for renovation Monday, January 7, and will reopen in fall of 2019. A holds pick up and book return utilizing OpenPlus technology has been made available at 479 Prairie Center Drive, across the parking lot from the Eden Prairie Library.

Library, Facilities, and County Administration are considering sites for the upcoming Southdale Library building project; including a new option to consider space at the Southdale Mall. A recommendation will be provided by County Administration to the County Board in late spring early summer 2019.
